DIPLOMATIC ATTEMPTS WERE UNDERTAKEN TO SOLVE THE HONDURAN GOVERNMENT ISSUES

Left to right:

Cannot identify the two U.S. naval officers in white, nor the gentleman in the bow tie

Franklin Morales, U.S. Ambassador to Honduras from Jan 1922 to April 1925.

Honduran military chiefs that your father probably saw:

General Francisco Martinez, a National Party military chieftain;

To his right, General Vicente Tosta, provisional president of Honduras between late 1924 and early 1925;

to his right, General Tiburcio Carias Andino, National Party president of Honduras and longtime dictator between 1933 and early 1949;

to his right, Antonio C. Rivera, Caria's representative on the USS Milwaukee; to his right, I am convinced, is Francisco Lopez Padilla, Rafael Lopez Padilla's brother. As you might recall, I am writing a biography of Rafael Lopez Padilla.

I cannot identify the man to Lopez Padilla's right, in the white suite and black tie...
