

WILL OF LOUISE P. HARRISON

I, LOUISE P. HARRISON, having my legal place of residence as Wildwood, Sumter County, Florida, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and considering the uncertainty of this frail and transitory life, do therefore make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all other and former wills and codicils that I may have made heretofore.

FIRST: I will and direct that my just debts and the proper expenses of my funeral be fully paid out of my estate as soon after my decease as the same may be conveniently done.

SECOND: I give, devise and bequeath all the rest, residue and remainder of my property, real, personal or mixed, and wheresoever situated, to my two children, namely WILLIAM B. HARRISON, JR. and CLARA HARRISON CHAPPELL, in equal shares, share and share alike, for their sole use and benefit absolutely and forever, per stirpes.

THIRD: I appoint my daughter, CLARA HARRISON CHAPPELL as Executrix of this Will and direct that no bond be required of her as such. Should said CLARA HARRISON CHAPPELL fail to qualify as such or for any reason decline or be unable to serve, then I appoint my son, WILLIAM B. HARRISON, JR. as Executor of this Will and likewise direct that no bond be required of him as such.

I give to my executor at any time acting hereunder, full power and authority to do all acts which I might or could do if living including authority to sell without order of court any real or personal property belonging to my estate and to settle and compound any claims, either in favor of or against my estate, as to her shall seem best for the purpose aforesaid, to execute any and all proper and necessary deeds, conveyances, receipts and acquittances.

Louise P. Harrison

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal and for the purpose of identification have signed my name at the foot of each and every of the preceding pages at Ocala, Florida, this 18 day of November, 1972.
